

Good morning Tekelia,
Here's the poem:

What Role Do You Play?

Remember to be a good steward over ALL that has been placed in our hand of care!!!

Do you extend a helping hand to someone who's trying to better themself or do you claim the old cliché, "I've got mine get yours the best way you can

Do you give an encouraging word or stay tight lip & not get heard

Are you living by example or just doing enough to be a sample

You've been blessed beyond measure so use what you have as a treasure

A treasure to share w/others sharing time, advice, & help in some way

Remember someone reached out & helped you one day!!
