WELCOME

WELCOME to Sisters In Business "First Year Anniversary and Grand Opening" ceremony. This is a special day for Sisters In Business, and women everywhere who desire to be in business. Like our one-year-old, woman-owned, for-profit business; women today can utilize extensive business development resources, ecommerce and globalization, like that offered by Sisters In Business, to help successfully launch and sustain their business.

Sisters In Business offers an all-in-one service platform for showcasing your business and doing business locally and worldwide. It is easy, effective, and affordable. Our "online" and "live" business services help strengthen market position, give a competitive edge, and take business to the next level. Our NAME strategy networks, advertises, markets, and empowers business in the marketplace. Our Proverbs 31 Business Model is a guide of how a woman can empower herself, her home, her business and her community.

Now having alliances also with other women networking groups in the USA and the United Kingdom to provide international marketing opportunities, we have strengthened our market position, are well on our way to connecting women in business and their communities locally and worldwide.

We thank God for Sisters In Business and our 1st Year Anniversary. Thank you for coming to celebrate the occasion with us; and thank our sponsors: Woman's Way Journal (Gold), and Henderson Hutcherson & McCullough, Aquarium Foods, and Aladdin Printing & Copying (Silver) for helping to make this event possible. Whether you are participating as a guest, program participant, exhibitor, sponsor, business partner, advertiser, supporter, prayer partner, or friend, you have become a very important part of Sister's In Business' history and future. It is my sincere desire that you all be blessed!

Tekelia C. Kelly, Founder and CEO

SIB "Proverbs 31" Business Woman Model

*The SIB Proverbs 31 Business Woman Model was originally created by Tekelia C. Kelly. The model is of a woman who reveres the Lord Jesus Christ, and seeks to serve Him with all her life. Her goals are to be a positive, wise, resourceful, and helpful woman; a productive manager of time, money, and resources (about handling business); know her strengths, abilities and what she has to offer (empowered); effectively develop relationships and conduct business with merchants and customers in the marketplace (networked); plan and be able to build wealth for the well being of her family, buying land and other resources as needed (sustainability), look out for and care for her home and friends; a treasure and delight to her husband, and valuable contributor to her community. She works to not just to make money, but also to make a positive difference in someone's life (has a "heart & soul for doing business"). She is a celebrated (blessed) woman by her children, husband, friends, and those in the community. The Proverbs 31 woman empowers herself, her home, her business, and her community.
