1st Annual Empowerment Luncheon Success

SIB's "1st Annual Empowerment Luncheon, a Mini-Tradeshaw and Youth Fundraiser for Girl's Inc. GirlVENTURE Entrepreneurship Summer Academy has been deemed by many as a great success. The event took place on June 15, 2006 at the Bessie Smith Performance Hall. Honored guest included Keynote Speaker Sandi Brock with the SEWBC, Representatives Tommi Brown and Jo Ann Favors, Girl's Inc President and CEO Maxine Bailey and staff, and academy girls, , Jacqueline Strong-Moss, and Ann Weeks. Other guests included numerous Chattanooga busiesses, SIB Clients & Partners, tradeshow vendors, and other guests from the community,. The event was covered by WRCB-TV Channel 3 News, which aired that night, highlighting the entrepreneurship bridge constructed between Sisters In Business and Girl's Inc. at the luncheon. Chattanooga Times Free Press also published the story the next morning. Vendors reported goods
